BOARD MEMBER OPENING AT HLA

Are you interested in learning more about Langhorne's history and helping serve your community? The HLA nominating committee is looking for enthusiastic candidates to fill a position on the HLA Board of Directors. Erin-Caitlin Rinker, who has served on the Board and has been one of our ghost tour guides, has resigned due to changes in her work schedule. The Board oversees the maintenance of the Library, arranges programs and sees to the care and preservation of the artifacts, archives and library. Candidates for the position must be members of Historic Langhorne Association and interested in working to preserve Langhorne's history. Board members serve a three year term, attend a monthly Board meeting on the second Monday of each month and usually serve on one or more committees. Board members are also asked to serve a couple hours a month at the library during our hours of operation to greet guests and learn about the library's holdings.

If you are interested in joining this friendly, hard working group of community volunteers, or know someone who is contact Jack Wysor, Nominating Committee Chairperson at 215-757-8047. Nominations will be presented at the General Membership meeting in September and voted on at the October meeting.

TEA AT THE LIBRARY

From Barbara Kittel

HLA hosted their annual Spring Tea on May 3, 2009. Everyone enjoyed the delicious tea sandwiches, scones and finger desserts while sipping on tea. Larry Langhans treated us to a lovely selection of organ music. Jeanette LeSchock, from Flower Power Boutique, was our guest speaker. She demonstrated several beautiful floral arrangements. Janet Maher won the gift basket which featured a teapot arrangement.

Special thanks go to the committee members—Barbara Kittel (Chairperson), Lynda Johnson, Judy Sloan, Jean Nobel, Nancy Pietsch, Evelyn Aicher and Claire Kelly.

HISTORIC LANGHORNE ASSOCIATION TO TAKE PART IN SMITHSONIAN MAGAZINE'S MUSEUM DAY

Historic Langhorne Association has joined over 900 museums and cultural institutions nationwide to celebrate Smithsonian Magazine's Museum Day on Saturday, September 26, 2009. Museum Day is a one-day nationwide event where participating museums and cultural institutions across the country offer free admission to Smithsonian readers and Smithsonianmag.com visitors and friends who present a Museum Day Admission Card. Although the Anna Mary Williamson Library and Museum is always open free and to the public, joining this celebration will give the museum and Langhorne added exposure.

To find additional institutions taking part in Museum Day, go to www.smithsonian.com/museumday and click on "Enter." Select the tab "Find a Venue" and follow the directions. Admission cards to the various venues will be available.

Historic Langhorne Association will be open extended hours on September 26 with special exhibits. If you have not stopped in recently, this is a chance to do so!

Author Marie Murphy Duess to Speak at October Meeting

Bucks County author, Marie Murphy Duess, will speak on her book Colonial Inns and Taverns of Bucks County at our general meeting on Monday, October 26, 2009 at 7:30 pm. Ms. Duess, a resident of Bucks County for more than twenty years, has written about many of the Bucks County inns and taverns and their ties to the American Revolution. Among the inns included are the Langhorne Hotel, the Half Moon Inn in Newtown, the Spread Eagle Inn (White Bear Inn) in Richboro, and the King George II Inn in Bristol. The book also includes a significant segment on the Revolutionary War Burial Site in Langhorne, as it is partially dedicated "... in memory of the 166 Continental Army soldiers buried in unmarked graves on a tiny tract of land in Langhorne... they are not forgotten." Charles Lauble of our Association is acknowledged in the book for his help in research and acquisition of old photographs, many of which came from Historic Langhorne's archives.

In addition, Marie has also recently published a book entitled The Delaware Canal: From Stone Coal Highway to Historic Landmark. Both books will be available for purchase and signing. As always, the October meeting is free and open to the public.

SHOPPING AT REDNER'S MARKET HELPS HISTORIC LANGHORNE ASSOCIATION

We once again want to thank our members and friends for saving their Redner's Market grocery receipt tapes and giving them to HLA. To date we have received over $600.00 from this program, money that helps keep the lights burning and the heat on in the historic Anna Mary Williamson Library. It also goes to help preserve our artifacts and archives. If you have contributed your tapes to this program, thank you and we hope you will continue to do so. If you have not and want to help, here is how the Redner's Market Save-A-Tape Program works!

- By shopping at Redner's Market and using their Save-A-Tape-Program card, members and friends can help HLA receive a check for 1% of the total of the register tapes we collect. (Excluding certain items.)
- Obtain a 1% Save-A-Tape-Program card from the courtesy desk at Redner's Market, Langhorne Square Center, Route 1, across from Lowe's, or ask for one at checkout. You do not need to register or sign-up for the program.
- When you checkout, present the card to the cashier who will swipe the card. (This eliminates excluded items from the program such as tax, milk and tobacco products.)
- The bottom of your receipt will show your regular total, and a total for the Save-A-Tape program.
- Collect your tapes. When you have a number, drop them off at HLA, Judy's Corner framing shop on South Bellevue Avenue in Langhorne, give to an HLA Board member or mail to HLA.
- We will total the tapes and submit them to Redner's for redemption. Redner's sends Historic Langhorne Association a check for 1% of the total of the tapes.

MARRAZZO HOME PRESENTATION

September 28, 2009
7:30 pm

At the Anna Mary Williamson Library & Museum

Dan Marrazzo, homeowner of 607 Station Avenue in Langhorne Manor will be doing a presentation on this beautiful historic home. This home was built in 1895 by William Parry. The home showcases magnificent architecture, stained glass and detailed woodwork. Partially destroyed by a fire in 2003, the Marrazzos have been restoring the home back to the splendor of a bye-gone era.

The public is invited to join us for this interesting presentation. The presentation will be followed by refreshments.

A Donation from the estate of Ruth Irwin to HLA

Four copper measuring containers and funnel were used in the Langhorne Hotel before prohibition, January 1, 1920. Whiskey was ordered and arrived at the hotel in large wooden barrels which were kept in the cellar on heavy wooden racks hewn to the shape of the barrel when placed on its side. The whiskey was siphoned from the barrel into the measuring container then put into decanters and bottles to be used to serve designated brands at the bar or at tables in the other room.
